WESTMINSTER BUILDS FOR FUTURE

Cement is poured for foundations

Steel for floors

Man on girders begins riviting steel structure

This has been the year of the big construction. The new wing extends from the old library to the bleachers and is of two levels. The top floor became an ultra-modern library with language labs while the lower floor houses the new cafeteria. Also, the boy's locker rooms were remodeled with the old weights room and the hall added for space. Eight new classrooms are now in use, some with special dividers.

1968 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM ROYALTY

In the darkness beyond, an audience waits... whispers cease, movement is suspended... footlights catch a sparkling coronet and royal bouquet - they too, wait... Now, mingles with tears of surprise and joy... hesitant, happy words of gratitude... the old steps down and extends a hand to the new... so begins the glorious reign... the time is brief, the memory everlasting... behind, follows a royal court in hushed silence ... symbols of pageantry... the spotlights merge into one as they cast reflections of beauty...

"DIARY OF ANNE FRANK" BIG SUCCESS

As Shakespeare said, "The play's the thing," and this year's all-school production of "The Diary of Anne Frank" proved the point. Adapted from the original book by Goodrich and Hackett, the play was presented the 23rd and 24th of Feb. Reviews termed the production "professional" and "the best ever".

Oh! Oh! Here it comes again!

Band Marches Off With Trophy

The '67-'68 marching season brought a great accomplishment to the W. H. S. band. "Outstanding Maneuvering Band" of the State was the title they earned at the CSU Band Day in Fort Collins. They also performed for all home football games, and the Bronco vs K. C. Chiefs game Dec. 17, 1967.

Concert Band has been no less exciting (or strenuous) than during the marching season. During concert season the band sheds it's shakos and overlays and settles down to performances of a different sort. Their goal is to produce the rich sounds of concert music. Mr. Smith has striven to attain that goal by introducing many difficult pieces during the frequent spring concerts.

In reference to any of the WHS bands Mr. Smith, the director, must not be forgotten. Winner of the "Outstanding Young Educator" award, he has greatly improved the instrumental department.

Highlighting 1968 was the combined choirs and orchestra performance before the student body at Thanksgiving Assembly. A patriotic reading by head girl, Eileen Russell, accompanied by the background music of "Battle Hymn of the Republic" left the students awed by the beauty of the rendition.

Similar performances by the various choirs, including four ensembles, acapella, and girls glee, have served to rank Westminster's choir tops in the state.

The choirs have sung at district PTA's, Golden Lookout School for Boys, Lakeside Shopping Center, and Hodgkins and Shaw Heights Jr. Highs.

Requiring great stamina and alertness basketball is in no way an easy game. Westy's team for '68-'69 showed it's capacity for such traits. This year dispite a few disappointments, was a rewarding season. The team worked as a unit utilizing the special talents of it's players. Westy's cagers didn't reach the top, but they deserve the pride of the school by placing third in the league.

Custodians & Cooks Are Indespensable

Indespensable, but often unsung, are our cooks and custodians. Feeding 1250 ravenous teenagers every day and cleaning up the aftermath keeps the cooks working at a frenzied pace. And the custodians job is never done. From morning to midnight they keep the building clean and neat.

Mrs. Anna Marsh, Mrs. Lydia Whitlock, Mrs. Antoinette Patrick; assistant, Mrs. Earla Coloroso, Mrs. Mary Percey, Mrs. Gertrude Kersenbrock, Mrs. Marie Sumida; manager, and Mrs. Hazel Miller.

"Pray God that we are a part of the world's solution and not a part of its problem." And so it ends for you, the Class of '68. The traditional graduation ceremony which has sent generation after generation into the world has been the highlight of your twelve years of preparation . . . preparation which can fullfill your hopes your dreams, your ambitions.

Although it marks the end of formal education it does not mark the end of learning. On the contrary, this ceremony brings the realization that you are now adults ready to take your place in society.

You will learn many things, but the most important, we think, is that you will find the world a warm and friendly place despite the trials and tribulations.

Remember this: although you are a part of society and have definite responsibilities to society, you are, each member of the graduating class, an individual. Do not give yourself up to society for then it can corrupt you, it can take away your individuality, it can smother you. Then, you are not longer free, and you will have become again "Society's child".

This Yearbook is dedicated to the family that is Westminster High School.
